

The Gamemaster of LIAISONS DANGEREUSES is a member of the DIPLOMACY ASSOCIATION and an advisor to novice Diplomacy Players in concert with Mr. Rick Brooks--another member of the DA. Mr. Brooks and I shall offer to council, together or seperately, any novice player wishing tips on the tactics of Diplomacy--both in Diplomatic relations or in military maneuver. We agree to have our names published as advising a particular player who wishes advice within the 'zine that carries the game(s) under consideration. Personally, I do not choose to advise a person on the ability of the other players from past game records, and I shall make no judgement based upon any personal relationships with any person in other dealings. Advice will be made on the basis of negotiations and positions--in fact I prefer NOT knowing the names of the remaining players so that I can be totally objective.

LIAISONS DIANGEREUSES fully supports Mrs. Walter Buchannon for QUEEN OF DIPLOMACY--we all know a real woman makes a better queen than.....

TOPKAPI SARAYI..... "The submarginal lands of Serbia are a fitting testing ground for the Bashibazouk irregulars pressed into service as a result of the breakdown in negotiations with the base-born king of the Austrian semi-empire".... Id Deneeo

Clyde---King Milktoast IV today announced the marriage of his daughter, princess Chastity, to the son of the Kaiser, Prince Moring Star. Neither the bride nor the groom were willing, but the King and the Kaiser convinced their respective off-spring to accept the match. The 4 ft 5 in bride is expected to wear a gown made by her mother, while the 7 foot 4 inch groom will be attired in his Prussian uniform. Rev. Godsend will officiate the ceremony at the summer palace.

Ankara---Turkish officials expressed shock today at the Russian presence in the Black Sea! The Russians are here by warned to leave the Black Sea immediately or Turkish Reprisals will result!

London--The foreign office today announced the declaration of a state of war between England and France, confirming rumours (occasioned by the abortive raid on London of an Entire French Fleet) that a war had in reality broken out. Blame for this unfortunate turn of events was laid squarely on France by the foreign minister, who indicated that " the government of England had no reason to believe that the French would do something so contrary to their best interests. We also did not fully realize the unique French ability for deception, deceit, betrayal, and outright lying. We were quite shocked!

Murmerings of discontent were observed among the sailors of the fleet. The consensus would seem to be that "the bloody blokes in the foreign office don't know an enemy from their own arsehole." effigies of the prime minister and members of his cabinet were unceremoniously keel hauled by the crew of HMS Repulsive. Repulsive has the misfortune, during the battle, of ramming a French supply craft loaded with cheap wine and cheese, which has made crew members unapproachable by anyone without a severe head cold. This has put quite a crimp in the off duty activities of Repulsive's crew, as one sailor stated glumly that the birds " couldn't be 'ad ferluve, nor money!"

John O'Rourke--confirm, pay and send country list; the same for Dean Schwass, Mark Richter and Guy Hall. I have money from Don Horton, David Leeder, Leo Early, and A Williams. We have 8 people so.....

* Note that I had printed the incorrect address for Peter Keleman in the issue of NEOPHYTE starting this game. Also I sent it to the incorrect address and therefore it arrived late. Peter did send in moves for the other game in NEOPHYTE but not this game. I feel that conditions, oversight and/or the PO have placed Keleman at a disadvantage in negotiations (since none of you had his proper address) and in getting in his move, as the chance of his missing the game announcement also exists. Lastly, the entire game would be compromised by this early miss--and in fact the smoothness of the game would be destroyed. Needless to say some players might also get an advantage from a missed spring move by ANY country in sp '01. Thus I have allowed a neutral substitute to make a series of moves for Russia that do not infringe upon any other's borders. Peter Keleman is hereby notified that he must notify me by October 27, 1971 if he intends to continue. If he does not a substitute will be assigned and the fall 1901 deadline extended.

+++THE DEADLINE FOR THE FALL OF 1901 IS NOVEMBER 7, 1971+++++

notes on move notation: The final position of your piece is shown in capital letters. Thus A BOH-sil would mean A BOH did not move successfully to silesia, whiel a boh-SIL shows it does succeed to Silesia. a boh-sil would imply that it did not succeed to sil and was dislodged from bohemia. Support is noted by (S) or WITH for successful support (s) or with for unsuccessful support, i.e. support was "cut". Convoy is shown by (o) or C depending off failure or success. NTH=north sea, NWG= norwegian sea, NAO= north atlantic ocean, MAO= mid atlantic ocean, tyo=tyrolia, lyon= gulf of lyon, both=gulf of bothnia, NWY=Norway, Other notes may be found inthe house rules.

BE SURE TO: 1)date your orders, 2) list the game and its number 3) list the season to which the ~~xxx~~ orders apply, PRINT the orders CLEARLY, and 4) SIGN THE ORDERS. FINALLY PROOFREAD THEM!!

Dear Game Buyer;

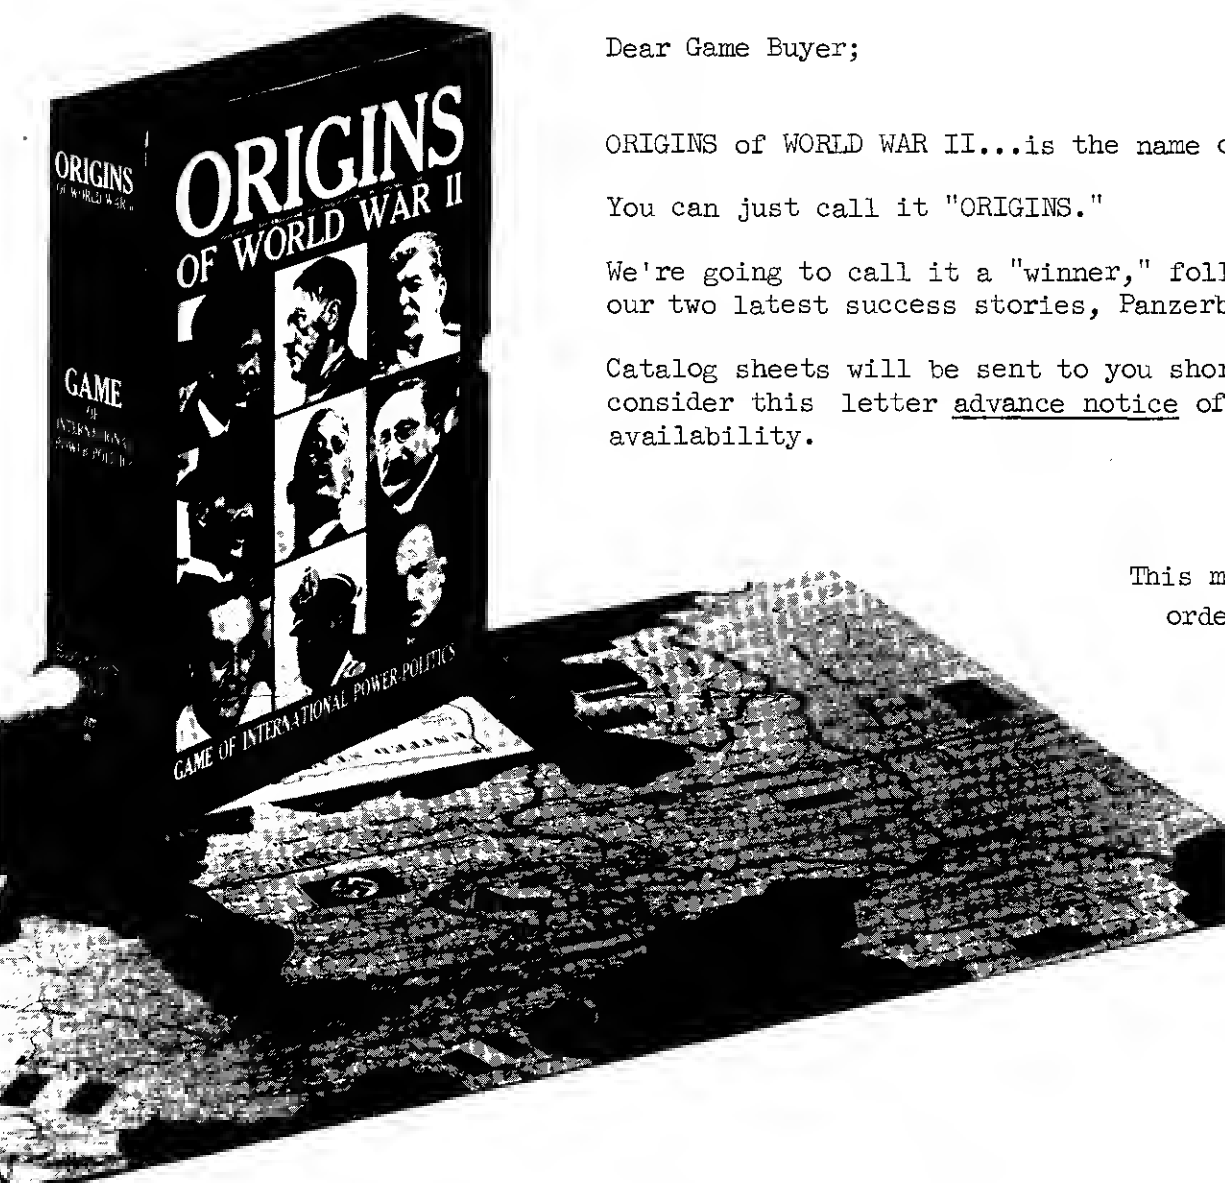

ORIGINS of WORLD WAR II...is the name of our BRAND NEW game.

You can just call it "ORIGINS."

We're going to call it a "winner," following on the heels of our two latest success stories, Panzerblitz and Luftwaffe.

Catalog sheets will be sent to you shortly. But you may consider this letter advance notice of this new game's availability.

This means you should order it NOW.

A game of International Power-politics, recreating the diplomatic war of 1935-40. Players take the part of the major diplomats in an effort to stifle Germany's emergence as a world power while initiating power-grabs for themselves. Were this game to be played tonight by today's great diplomats, they might be able to prevent history from repeating itself - the game is that realistic.
